

Operating Billboard

The RailKing Operating Billboard with its flipping boards lends realism to any layout. It is easy to wire and operate when you follow the operating instructions given.

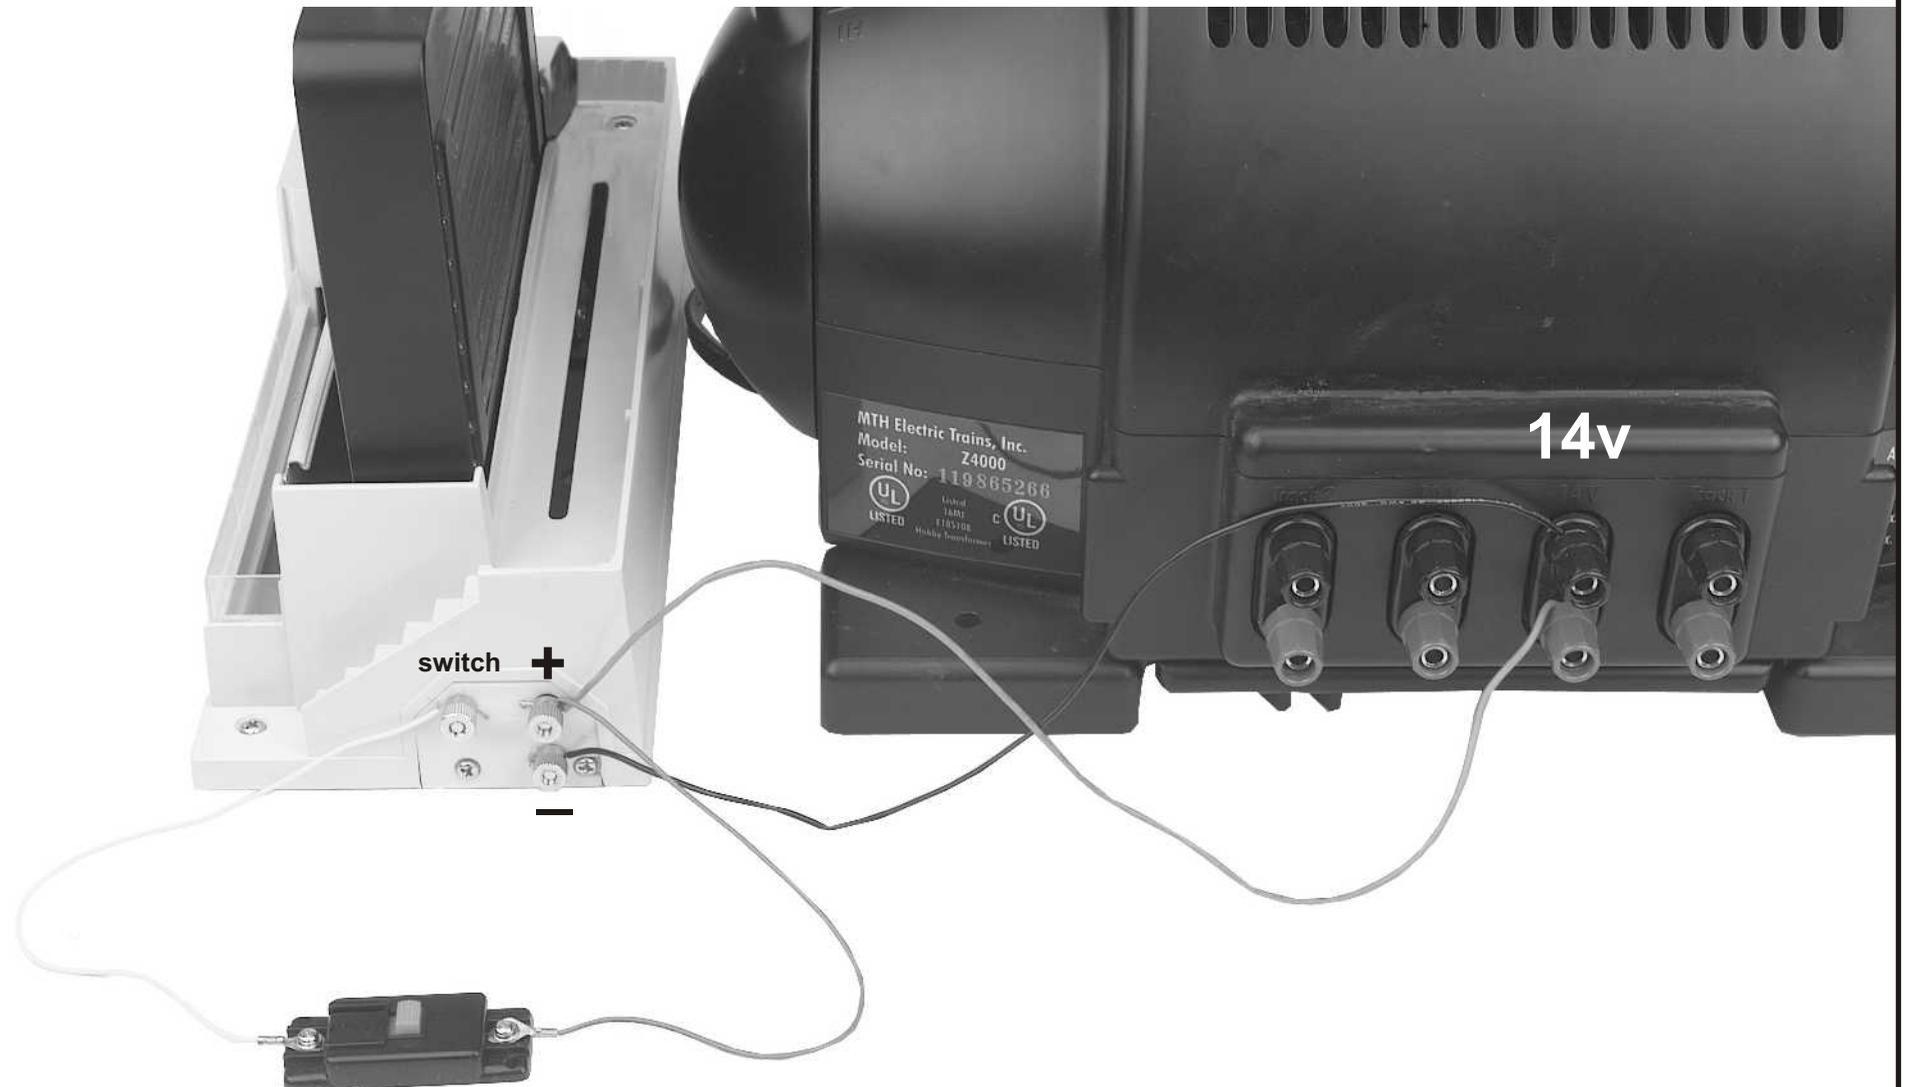

To Wire the Board:

Position and mount the billboard to your layout:

This billboard requires 14v of power to operate properly. When you first connect it and apply power, the board will rotate through one cycle.

Operation:

To operate this board, press and release the activation button once to watch the boards rotate, then stop with the latest billboard information.

To obtain Warranty Service, please visit our website www.railking.com